PGA Golf Day Marathon

“You gotta play’em one hole at a time”

2010

The Gateway Section PGA is asking for your help in raising money for the 2010 Gateway PGA Tournament Program, Education Program, and The First Tee.

Gateway PGA Mission Statement:

The mission of the Gateway PGA, which is comprised of over 335 professionals at over 200 facilities in eastern and central Missouri and southern Illinois, is to abide by the above PGA Golf Professional’s Code of Ethics and to provide its members with meaningful playing, educational and financial opportunities while promoting golf at all levels in the geographical confines of the organization.

Who: PGA Members or Apprentices and Professionals that have passed the PAT.

Commitment: Play 100 holes of golf on your own course or a PGA recognized facility. One ball and one hole at a time. Pledge goal per player: $2,500.

Includes: Exclusive Vendor PGA Golf Day Marathon shirt, MSR Credits, certificate of completion

When: Must be completed on one day before May 15, 2010

Incentives:

How it Works: Once you sign the player agreement the following actions take place:

- You will be emailed a flyer that you can post at your club or distribute.
- You will be emailed a pledge template to send to your potential donors.
- One week after the event you will be emailed a thank you template to send your pledges.
- Two weeks after the event you will be notified of the incentive level you reached.

This is a great opportunity to raise a significant amount of revenue for the Gateway Tournament Program, Education Program, and the First Tee as well as an opportunity to earn great rewards!
